Presentation Boot Camp ~ Phoenix!

March 23-24, 2023

Who Should Participate?

---

You don't have to consider yourself a "public speaker" for this seminar to be enormously helpful. Presentation Boot Camp will assist you in formulating your message at the board table or at the dinner table. It's about presenting any information in a persuasive, confident and structured way in order to get results.

Whether you present in front of groups of two or two hundred, live or online, learn how you can get even better results. And even if you have a fear of speaking in front of others, this is a supportive, tactical, non-threatening way to finally find your voice.

Overview

This is an opportunity for participants to advance presentation skills by leaps and bounds. Whether you are presenting to clients, other members of the team or at industry conferences, you will become more effective, confident and organized.

While there are other "presentation trainings" available, our program is dramatically different. Here's why:

- We focus on bringing out the strengths of each individual student, rather than defaulting to a "cookie cutter" approach.
- The tools students learn are useful for presenting in front of a group, one-on-one, and even in email and voicemail- skills for communication everywhere.
- Our training is centered 75% on live practice and feedback, giving practical tools to ensure that communication will be effective and impactful, even if you are presenting online.

Dates & Location

This two-day training will take place from 8am-5pm on March 23-24, 2023 in downtown Phoenix at 901 East Jefferson Street, Phoenix, Arizona 85034.

Methodology

We incorporate the latest research along with constant feedback from our students about what's most helpful to them as we teach our core methodology:

1. Credibility

Who are you as a presenter?

What messages are you sending outside of just words?

2. Connection

How do you connect with the audience?

There's more to presenting than slides!

How to Enter, Enlighten & Exit™

3. Construction

Making complicated messages clear & concise

Staying on track and preparation techniques
